

Workshop:

Justice, Deliberation and Institutional Design

Johannes Gutenberg Universität Mainz, 22.-23.08.2013

Programme:

Thursday, 22.08.

12:30 Lunch at the “Baron” (see campus map)

14:00 – 15:30

Albert Weale

The right to health versus good medical care?

Katharina Böhm:

The social right to health care: Germany and England compared

15:30 Coffee

15:45 – 18:00

Benedict Rumbold:

The Right to Health and Priority Setting

Katharina Kieslich:

The Policy Paradigms of Pharmaceutical Benefit Assessments: Empirical Insights from Germany and England

Peter Littlejohns

Social Values and Clinical Commissioning Groups in the UK

Friday, 23.08.

09:00 – 10:30

Harri Raisio / Pirkko Vartiainen

Metadeliberation on the right to authorize or prohibit assisted dying in Finland

Claudia Landwehr:

Substantial values and procedural preferences in delegated policy-making

10:30 Coffee

10:45 – 12:15

Matthew A. Wood

New Political Spaces?: Enhancing the Legitimacy of European Agencies

Maija Setälä

Can deliberative mini-publics improve the quality of democratic decision-making?

12:15 – 13:00 Wrap-up and future plans

13:00 – 15:00 Lunch, coffee and departures

Workshop Participants:

Kai Arzheimer (J.Gutenberg Universität Mainz)

Katharina Böhm (J.Gutenberg Universität Mainz)

Katharina Kieslich (University College London)

Claudia Landwehr (J.Gutenberg Universität Mainz)

Peter Littlejohns (Kings College London)

Benedict Rumbold (Nuffield Trust)

Maija Setälä (University of Turku)

Harri Raisio (University of Vaasa)

Pirkko Vartiainen (University of Vaasa)

Matthew A. Wood (University of Sheffield)

Albert Weale (University College London)